HANDICAPPED.

This is the Case With Man Bryan People

Too many Bryan citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest, and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's kidney pills cure sick kidney's and cure them permanently. Can you doubt Bryan evidence.

Mrs. B. E. Board, Bryan, Texas, says: "Four years ago I learned of the value of Doan's Kidney Pills in cases of kidney trouble. At that time I was bothered by irregular passages of the kidney secretions and was compelled to seek relief. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Emmell & Maloney's drug store came to my aid and proved their superiority over all other kidney remedies I had tried by disposing of my trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Bad Stomach Causes Unsightly Complexion. E. J. Jenkins Has a Remedy.

Bad stomach means bad blood; bad blood means sallow, unattractive skin. Why? The stomach in a healthy condition separates the nutritious matter from the food and gives it to the blood with nourishment.

If the stomach is not in a healthy condition it does not separate from the food the nutritious matter and it passes off with the waste.

Thus the blood is impoverished and has not sufficient nourishment to supply the muscles, skin and body generally.

If you have belching of gas, distress after eating, nausea, biliousness, nervousness or foul breath, then your stomach is wrong and you want the best prescription for stomach troubles the world has ever known.

You want Mi-o-na tablets, the great stomach remedy which E. J. Jenkins guarantees to cure indigestion, no matter of how long standing, or money back.

Relieves stomach distress at once. Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Bryan by E. J. Jenkins for 50 cents a large box. Test samples free from Booth's/Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

HYOMEI

EXPENSIVE STEAK.

Ten Pounds of Beef That Sold For $48 a Pound.

The highest price ever paid for beefsteak so far as is known was at Circle City, Alaska. The first beefsteak that ever reached that town sold for $48 a pound, according to the newspapers of the time.

There were ten pounds of the steak, which was shipped 250 miles to Circle City.

When the owner of the precious bit of meat reached the camp the miners turned out in a body to see it. It was placed on exhibition and attracted as much attention as an elephant. Everybody wanted a piece of it, and the prices offered were such as would have resulted in a mining camp quarrel if it had not been decided to raffie the steak off for the benefit of a hospital which Bishop Rowe was trying to establish for the miners at Circle City.

Bids were started at $5 a pound and rose briskly to $35. Finally in order to avoid complications it was decided to sell tickets at prices from 50 cents to $2.50 for the privilege of drawing for a slice. After $450 worth of tickets had been sold the drawing began, and to the relief of those in charge of it sale no trouble resulted.

Brother Goodsole's Mistake.
"Brother Goodsole," asked the Rev. K. Mowatt Lightly, "did you announce last Sunday that I would occupy your pulpit this morning?"
"Indeed, I did, Brother Lightly."
"Yet look at the smallness of the congregation. I can't account for it."

WHAT IS A WHITE MAN?

A Puzzling Problem For the Racial Investigator.

The chief of the naturalization bureau at Washington is of the opinion that the "average man in the street" understands distinctly what a "white" man is. Apparently some persons can master a subject without studying it at all, while others who have looked into it deeply are not so dogmatically certain as the "average man in the street."

For example, the encyclopedias tell us that mankind was divided by Blumenbach into five races—namely, Caucasian, Mongolian, Ethiopian, American (Indian) and Malay. The words "Caucasian" and "white" are used synonymously. This classification was first published in 1781 and must have been known to our national legislators when in 1802 they passed the first naturalization law.

The Caucasian race includes Arabs, who are certainly no "whiter" than the Turks, yet Turks, the official says, cannot be naturalized because they are not "white."

We are also told by the naturalization bureau that the Hindoo is not "white" within the meaning of the statute. But the encyclopedia says that it is a great error to separate the Hindoo from the Caucasian race. The Hindoo, it thinks, is much nearer the "white" race than the Arab.

To puzzle the racial investigator still further, while everything is so clear to the "average man in the street," we are told by the encyclopedias that the original Caucasians—that is, the inhabitants of the Caucasus—are no longer regarded as Caucasians. They have been thrown out of the "white" camp and forced to go over to the Mongol.

Nor is the enigma any nearer solution when we are told by the naturalization bureau that Asiatics cannot be naturalized, but that Siberians can, although Siberians may be anything from Russians to Mongolians or Mongol-Turco-Tartars.—Boston Globe.

AN ARCTIC TRAGEDY.

The Body That Was Seen Floating in the Ice Water.

On Aug. 20 we arrived at Rudolf Island, the most northern of the Franz Josef group and simply a mass of ice and high glaciers, where we had planned to spend the winter. While cruising near Northbrooke Island I saw one day from the "crow's nest" a singular dark body just awash on the surface of the water. As we came nearer and nearer I was possessed by a rather unusual desire to know what this dark mass was. Putting up my glasses, I gave the order for "dead slow," and we passed the object closely on the starboard side. I saw clearly that it was the body of a man clothed in a great skin coat, with the usual hood, and with mittens on the hands. The face was not discernible, but it dawned on me suddenly that this might be the remains of the Swedish balloonist Andree, who had been lost in the Arctic about two years before, or perhaps one of the men who had been lost in the Abruzzi expedition.

I was about to stop the steamship and procure the body when it occurred to me that to take a corpse on board would destroy the good spirit and courage of the members of the polar party, for there is a general superstition among sailors that a ship is doomed when a dead body is on board. The first officer and myself were the only ones who witnessed this ghastly spectacle, and neither mentioned the fact, fearing that the discovery would cast a shadow over the entire party. We have both always believed that this was the body of Andree, and I have often regretted that it had not been in my power to give him decent burial.—Captain Edwin Coffin of the Ziegler Polar Expedition in National Magazine.

The Family Tree Grew Backward.
A Kansas City man married, and his mother-in-law came to live with him. About a year later a friend met him and asked:

"Has there been any increase in your family since we last met?"
"Well, yes. There's one more of us."
"Well! Glad to hear it. Boy or girl?"

"Neither. It's my wife's mother's mother, who has come to live with us."

The first man was silent a moment; then he said, "It looks to me, old man, as if your posterity had got headed in the wrong direction."—Kansas City Times.

The Rhyming Speller.
A correspondent mentions the difficulty experienced by budding authors in spelling words in which diphthongs "ei" and "ie" appear. An easy manner to recall the order of precedence of the vowels is contained in an ancient rhyme:

"I" before "e"
Except after "e"
Or when sounded like "a"
In "neighbor" and "weigh."
—New York Sun.

They Sometimes Are.
"We'll have to promote that clerk. He takes the stairs four at a jump. He's always busy."
"Yes," commented the observant senior partner, "too busy to do anything."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Unopened.
"Did opportunity knock at your door?"
"Yes, but the cook always maintained that it wasn't her place to answer."
—Puck.
